Luscious Utah grapes.
And still Ogden has depot aspirations.
The rock railway agitation continues.
Business is beginning to improve considerably.
To-day is the anniversary of the festival of St. Bartholomew.
No business was transacted in the Third District court on Saturday.
The police court preserved a condition of undisturbed serenity on Saturday.
Edie Ellisler and company open the Walker Opera House season Friday evening next.
The colored gentry, arrested on Friday, for various offenses, were variously fined on Saturday.
At Dwyer's book-store will be found the latest issues of Puck, Judge, and Harper's Weekly.
The Sixteenth Ward band is making big preparations for the approaching excursion on the 3d prox.
The fireman's band was out last night parading the streets and advertising their forthcoming excursion.
Ninety-nine car loads of ore and bullion and white lead were shipped away last week, the number of pounds being 2,767,787.
A man named Johnson is reported to have been robbed of $250 in this city lately. It was taken from his room at the D. & R. G. house on Friday evening.
The "Valley Tan Remedy" is pointed out on the rear end of the water cante. It is suggestive of temperance reform, as well as of remedial qualities otherwise.
President Wm. Paxman, of Juab Stake, extended a personal invitation to the Tabernacle choir to visit Neph. The date for the excursion is put at September 21.
One thing farmers could bear in mind with profit, is the fact that there are things that can be raised in Utah besides grain; and some of them would prove more profitable at times.
The passenger agents, having seen all of Salt Lake that they care to at the present time, be take themselves to their several destinations by this morning's train. The red badges will therefore disappear.
Notwithstanding the cry of dull times, the streets were alive on Saturday with teams and people trading. The excellent harvest now being gathered gives promise of vastly improved times this fall.
The memorial services in honor of the martyred elders, Gibbs and Berry, will be held in the Tabernacle this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be held all over the Territory at the same hour.
If we cultivate a habit of attention, it will become natural; thought will strike its roots deep, and we shall, by degrees, experience no difficulty in following the track of the longest connected discourse.—Robert Hall.
General Watson, commanding the street sprinkling brigade, says the teams have only laid by three half days since the heavy rains of last spring. The dusty streets have required attention each day. We admit the necessity.
That they deny a God destroys a man's nobility; for certainly man is of kin to the beasts by his body; and if he be not of kin to God by his spirit, he is a base and ignorant creature. It destroys, likewise, magnanimity, and the taking human nature.—Lord Bacon.
Mrs. Dr. Taggart, who left for Santa Fe, New Mexico, yesterday, with her daughter, Mrs. Lieutenant Mumford, has been quite ill for six weeks past, but has improved somewhat lately. She goes home with her daughter in the hope that the change of climate will restore her health—a hope in which her many friends join.

Edie Ellisler.
A special card in this morning's HERALD announces the opening of the theatrical season at the Walker Opera House, and the preparations made for that event. Edie Ellisler has been engaged and will appear in David Belasco's popular production "La Belle Ruse." On this occasion the Opera House Orchestra, enlarged, will perform new selections for an hour; a handsome bouquet of flowers will be given to each lady present, while a souvenir programme for each ticket-holder will constitute an additional attraction. These, however, are unnecessary. Miss Ellisler's name is an attraction sufficient in itself.

ANTI-ROCK RAILROAD.

The Meeting at the City Hall Last Evening.

The notice published on Saturday morning calling a meeting of the residents of Second South street to protest against the giving of the right of way along Second South street to the Rock Railway company, drew out a very fair attendance. The meeting was held in the upper west room. T. V. Williams, of the Twelfth Ward, was made chairman, and N. V. Jones secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly stated, and those present were called upon to give expression to their views on the subject with a view to determine what steps should be taken to place an effective protest against the granting of a franchise to a railroad company along the street. Remarks were made by a number of those present, all opposed to the city giving the right of way along that street to any company which intended to build a railroad there and haul freight on it. There was a general willingness and desire that a street railroad should be built; and, notwithstanding the promises of the company to comply with certain conditions, there seemed to be a general feeling that it would be a matter of very brief time, the company once having its road built before they would do as they pleased their promises, the protests and likes and dislikes of the people to the contrary notwithstanding.
Hon. John W. Young, who represented the interests of the Rock Railway Company, was, on motion, requested to give expression to his views on the subject the sentiment of those present being unanimously favorable to the proposition.
Mr. Young thereupon arose and at considerable length, replied to the position taken by the people of Second South Street, and set forth reasons why it would be to the best general interests of the city, to grant the franchise asked to the company he represented.
At the conclusion of Mr. Young's remarks, a few statements were made and a committee was appointed to formulate and set forth the reasons of the people of Second South Street why the franchise should not be granted. This committee was also instructed to meet with the City Council committee on streets and alleys and enter the protest there.
The committee is composed of Gen. R. T. Burton, F. H. Auerbach, Esq., Judge A. Miner, Judge Z. Snow, Collector N. V. Jones, Mr. William Naylor and Mr. J. P. Freeze, with Gen. Burton as chairman.

Judge Zane.

Judge Charles S. Zane, the new Chief Justice of this Territory, accompanied by his family, reached this city last evening. Governor Murray, Judge S. P. Twiss, and Judge C. W. Bennett went as far as Ogden to meet him and escorted him to this city. Judge Zane is accompanied by his wife, a grown up son, one considerably younger, a grown up daughter, and one still quite young. The Judge is a man, from appearance, about 60 years of age; his hair and beard are gray; his face is clean shaven from and including the upper lip, while his beard is allowed to grow over the chin; he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, light and sparely built, with a shrewd face and penetrating eye. There was no demonstration of any kind, and the evening was spent by Mr. Zane, in conversing with some gentlemen in the office of the Walker House. It is supposed he will be formally introduced to the members of the bar on Monday next. He will be assigned to the Third Judicial district, and continue the work heretofore performed by ex-Chief Justice John A. Hunter.

Honorable Discharges.

Not less than forty of the soldiers stationed at Fort Douglas will have been honorably discharged this month, their terms of service having expired. Many of them are returning to the east. These discharges make no material difference in the numerical strength of the Sixth Infantry, as the recruiting posts fill up the vacancies thus created. Many of those who leave return east to spend the money they have saved, and when it is gone they reinstate and come west again.
That Discussion.
Elder Ben E. Rich, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, has had published at the Juvenile Instructor office, the "Public Discussion of the Doctrine of the Gospel of Jesus Christ," held in the Ogden Tabernacle last May between himself and Rev. Richard Hartley, pastor of the Baptist Church, Ogden. It makes a volume of 72 pages, and costs only 20 cents a copy.
Promotion of Science.
It is intimated that about 400 members of an English society for the promotion of science are heading this way. The report has it—and it dropped from the mouths of a couple who recently passed here—that the members will scatter along, Yellowstone Park being the settled destination, while nearly, if not all, expect to meander through Salt Lake, either while going or coming.

ORPHANS EXCURSION.

Seven Hundred of Them Taken to the Lake.

Repeat It Again—And Still Again.

The deferred event so long and anxiously looked forward to by juveniles between the ages of eight and fifteen years came off yesterday. Towards the time of departure long strings of little ones, representing all the fashions in vogue among our street Arabs, could be seen winding their way to the Utah & Nevada depot. The juvenile drum and fife band from the Eighteenth Ward, in charge of Professor Day, came marching with the glorious old fife flouting in the breeze, their martial music filling the air with stirring melodies. Every mother's heart was wishing them a good time, and each little one was full of anticipation. At the time appointed the train of eight large excursion coaches with over 700 occupants moved out, the air resounding with their merry hurrahs. The bootblacks were there; the newboys, the wags and strays of city life—colored and white. There were quite a company of Sandwich Islanders both juvenile and adult, but all were clean and orderly. The committee in charge with their scarlet badges were posted along the line watching their charges and notwithstanding the m'ley mixed crowd all was agreeable and pleasant. Everybody was cheered en route. One farmer was so overjoyed that he threw a sheaf of wheat in the air. In due time the train reached Black Rock and then commenced the grand rush for the bowery. Our committee, who have their own way of doing things, called the children together, and told them in a few brief words, what was expected of them. W. H. Foster then sang, "All together again," assisted by Prof. Beezley and members of his band, who had kindly volunteered the dance music for the occasion. Mr. Wm. Naylor then offered prayer for the safety and well-being of the company, after which bathing and steamboat riding was next in order. The weather was delightful, the lake was as calm as a mill-pond, Messrs. Anderson and Dahl did everything they could to make the occasion one of true enjoyment and they succeeded admirably. Then followed music by Beezley's band, with a free distribution of splendid lemonade, then foot-racing for prizes, distribution of nuts and candies, until the waning sun told of the time for the home stretch. The Old Folks committee never did themselves greater honor than in catering for these almost forgotten cherubs. They all seemed happy; scores of them had never seen the lake, and many who go to their homes filled with the vacant chairs of fathers and mothers gone before will remember the whole soiled ladies and gentlemen who worked so hard for their happiness. We need more of this genuine part of christianity and less of hollow pretension.
Nothing occurred to mar the happiness of any one. The train arrived home safely, and the little band marched up the street and gave THE HERALD the good-bye. Success to all such movements.

Deseret Mills.

Wm. Jennings & Sons are now about to begin the operation of their woolen mills—the Deseret mills—in downright earnest. The last of the needed improvements, the introduction of a new boiler, has just been placed at the mill. Messrs. Haynes & Sons, the well known boiler makers, having furnished it. There are promises of new features in the production of the Deseret mill, particularly in the matter of the variety of colors.
Cheap Tickets.
A limited number of excursion tickets to Europe, also to New York and return, will be sold up till Thursday evening, August 28th. Apply to John A. Maynes, HERALD building.
Demonstration in Lehi.
LEHI, Utah County, Utah, August 22d, 1884.
Editors Herald:
Quite an interest has been felt in this place ever since the news of the killing of the brethren in Tennessee reached us. Brother Berry has relatives residing here, and Brother Gibbs is well and favorably known to some of us.
When it became known here that the D. & R. G. R. R. express train, on Friday evening, would convey the body of Brother Gibbs to his home in the north, the feelings of the people were made manifest at the company's depot. In this place, The ecclesiastical authorities of the place turned out, then came the John L. Gibb, then quite a representation from the young people's association and Sunday school children, with a large number of presidents. The stores were closed and business mostly suspended.
When the train arrived with the car draped in mourning, the choir on the platform sang, "Farewell all earthly honors," in a most impressive manner.
The feelings and expressions with many present seemed to be, "How long, O Lord?"
The train remained about ten minutes and then moved on.

A TERRIBLE DEFEAT.

We Have Met the Enemy and We are Theirs.

Butte 34—Salt Lake 17.

The following dispatch tells its own melancholy tale. In the absence of any particulars, we can only surmise that the bad condition the boys describe themselves as being in, refers to some serious accident that must have befallen the whole nine; or it may mean that they have run afoul of a nest of professionals, and that the outlook for the coming games is anything but rose tinted; or it might still have referred to the state of the grounds. Barker, however, was known to be in bad trim before he left here, and if any of the other principals should have been damaged in the Wood River games, it can readily be seen what effect their lameness would have on the game; it is difficult, by any species of reasoning to account for the scores taking such frightful dimensions.
Special to the HERALD:
BUTTE, Montana, August 23.
The first game between the Blues and the Gate Citys for the championship of Utah and Montana took place on the Butte City grounds today; the weather was fine and the attendance large; the result was a score of 34 to 17 in favor of the Butte City team; bad condition.

The A. O. U. W. Day at Garfield.

It is remarkable what a few energetic minds can accomplish in a short time. Six or seven months ago nothing had been heard of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in this city; now everybody knows something about it and quite a few seem infatuated with it. Judge Jonasson told us the other day that in California this organization has taken the people by storm. He says there, excursions, amusements, concerts, balls, lyceums, reading rooms and everything else is apparently conducted by the A. O. U. W. The organization is purely benevolent, and is by no means exclusive, and provokes there to be the workingman's best friend. He thinks it will not take long to assume the same phase here, when the objects of the order are fully understood.
By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the members are getting up an "out" or day of enjoyment at Garfield on Thursday, when they will freely fraternize with their families and friends. The committee has arranged for low fares from Bingham, Ogden and Park City, extending over several days, so that quite a few may be expected from those places. They have also arranged with Dr. Benedict, president of the Salt Lake Shooting club, and M. Merrill, president of the Deseret Shooting club, for a strong team of the members to have an interesting shooting match, and to that end have offered a purse of $25 open to all comers. It is expected that some of the Ogden shots will also be down. The full Opera House Silver Cornet Band has been engaged, to give tone and style to the "out." They have promised to give some of their best operatic selections during the day. In the afternoon they will furnish dance music to make things pleasant and lively. The band will appear in their new uniform. The steamer Wahluwind will also be making trips through the day.

Railroad Matters.

Col. D. C. Dodge, W. H. Bancroft, receiver, and S. W. Eccles, freight and passenger agent on D. & R. G. Western, left on a special on Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, for Denver. At Denver a consultation will be held with those interested in the Colorado branch of the road, and a decision reached as to the future policy and conduct of both branches. It will also, in all probability, result in a decision as to the future officers of the road.
They will Canvass the Returns.
The board of canvassers appointed to canvass the returns of the recent election for county and precinct officers will commence their labors at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, August 26, 1884, at the room of the Utah Commission, Walker Opera House, this city.

IN MEMORIAM.

Funeral Services in Memory of the Martyred Elders,

This is the day set apart for services and commemoration of the death of Elders Gibbs and Berry, who were assassinated at Lewis County, Tennessee, two weeks ago this Sabbath morning. The services will begin in the Tabernacle at 2 o'clock, this afternoon, and the expectation is that an immense throng will assemble for the purpose of showing their respect for the memory of the murdered deceased, and to participate in the services arranged to give expression to the public sentiment regarding the brutal atrocity perpetrated on the Mormons in Tennessee. The following notices show the character of the services:
MEMORIAL SERVICES.
At a meeting of the Apostles now in this city held on Wednesday, August 20th, 1884, at 2 p. m., President Joseph F. Smith presiding, it was resolved that Memorial Services be held in the various Stakes of Zion on Sunday, August 24th, at 2 p. m., when the funeral services will be held at Kanab and Paradise over the remains of Elders W. S. Berry and John H. Gibbs, who were martyred for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, at Conder's Farm, Lewis County, Tenn., on Sunday, August 10, 1884. The Presidents of the various Stakes will please take notice and make the necessary arrangements for these services. We recommend that moderation and the patience of the Gospel be observed in all these ceremonies, rendering honor and respect to the slain, and remembering that our mission is not to wreak vengeance on theungodly, but to preach peace on earth and good will to all men.
JOSEPH F. SMITH.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 20, 1884.
SPECIAL SERVICES.
Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the instructions given by President Joseph F. Smith, memorial services will be held in the Tabernacle in this city on Sunday, August 24th, at 2 p. m., in honor of Elders W. S. Berry and John H. Gibbs, who were cruelly slain while preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by a masked mob at Cone Creek, Lewis County, Tennessee, on Sunday, August 10, 1884. The people residing in Salt Lake Stake of Zion are invited to attend. The Bishops in the country settlements are requested to make arrangements for memorial services in their respective wards at the same time, so that those who are unable to attend the general Stake meeting in the Tabernacle, may have an opportunity thus to show their love and respect for the martyred dead, their sympathy for the bereaved, and their aversion to the spirit of intolerance which seeks to suppress by force that religious liberty which is the right of all people in this free republic.

The Verdict Before the Trial.
People who jump at conclusions frequently condemn before they try what may be meritorious or praise before using that which is useless. Sensible men and women first satisfy themselves of the merits of what they are solicited to use and then emphatically express their opinions. When manufacturers solicit a trial of their goods and give sufficient reasons why the trial should be made, they show a willingness to live or die by the verdict of public opinion.
(Try "Way Up" Baking Powder,) appears in many places about Salt Lake.
Messrs. Smith & Case, the manufacturers, give the following pertinent reasons why the trial should be made.
It is strictly pure powder.
It is guaranteed to give satisfaction.
It is always full weight.
Its manufacture is a Home Industry.
It is as cheap as a good and pure article can be produced.
Dealers supplied with it from SMITH & CASE, post office box 594, Salt Lake City.
A LARGE assortment of Wall Papers and Fall Carpets at H. Dinwoody's Furniture Rooms.
HENRY DINWOODY has just received three more carloads of furniture, and will sell cheap.
Buy a bottle of genuine Montserrat lime juice from G. F. Culmer & Bros for making refreshing summer drinks.
Take Notice.
Now is the time to bring your friends from Europe. The following are the lowest rates ever offered emigrants: From Liverpool and London to Salt Lake, $68; from Germany and Paris to Salt Lake, $68; from all points in Norway, Sweden and Denmark, $68.
